[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Pinehurst, N. C., February 4.—Wednesday's cotillion at the Carolina provided a merry romp for the younger set, happily inaugurating the season's more formal dances. The music hall was attractively decorated with floral garlands, and a large company of onlookers enjoyed the program. Refreshments were served at intermisison, and dancing ceased at midnight. The figures were largely old favorites, among them the tandem steeplechase, in which pairs of young men and women raced about the hall, and the ever ludicrous ballet, in which the men appeared in gauze shirts, worn over their tuxedos. There was also a slipper rush tuxedos. There was also a slipper rush for men and a handerchief dash for the fairer sex, a "follow the man from Cook's" drawing, jigsaw puzzle and
